Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 21, 2026

Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for he has rescued the life of the poor.

— Jeremiah 20:13

ENTHUSIASM AND GRAMMAR

There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don't show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today's reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run-on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul's fervor for his subject matter derails the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage's early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us was so excited by our faith in Christ that we were left grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with the message of Christ!

Announcements

Totus Tuus VBS

Totus Tuus VBS starts this week, June 21-26. This is a free program for all children of the parish. There is still time to register your child in the hall; registration is in the parish hall today after Mass. Please help us make this a success by signing up to volunteer to be present during day or evening programs during the week, to bring meals for our missionaries, and/or for additional items that are needed.

Peter's Pence Collection

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including the charitable works of Pope Leo XIV. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Be a sign of hope with your generosity. For more info, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html.

We are excited to announce St. John's Enrichment Co-op, a homeschool community for K-8 (nursery included for younger siblings). We will meet on the 1st and 3rd Friday of each month starting August 2026 for morning Mass and enrichment classes (including art, science, Liturgy/Saints, and life skills). Registration is open until July 1, 2026. We are looking for more families to join, as well as adult volunteers for the school year. Reflecting on the Word

In the midst of difficult experiences, the psalms of lament can provide necessary words of prayer and catharsis. The psalms of imprecation also provide catharsis, but with God in a more peaceful manner and are meant to help prevent violence among family and friends. Today's psalm overlaps lament and imprecation. In praying such a psalm, we have entrusted our anguish and desire for revenge to God's hands. Now we don't have to do any of those things or even think about them anymore. Many moons ago, my confessor made this suggestion: Place all your anger, anxieties, violent thought of revenge, etc., into an imaginary envelope. Before you go to bed, hand that imaginary envelope to God and pray that you won't have to take everything back in the morning. This has been an excellent practice of trust in God—and a practice of catharsis. The best part is knowing that no one will be killed (accidentally or otherwise).
